

Planned Giving Overview

The goal of planned giving is to help donors plan their estates and charitable giving in ways that benefit both family and charity. The federal tax code allows for several trusts and gift agreements that are used in making these planned gifts to charity and that provide some tax benefits for donors. Therefore, the study and practice of planned giving is twofold. It involves knowledge of people and their needs as well as knowledge of taxation and the gift agreements available to fill those needs.

Request Further Information

I have reviewed your brochure on Planned Giving and:

- I would like to speak with someone who can provide additional giving information.
- I would like to receive information on other charitable giving methods.
